Recap

The event was a success!

We had a great evening, full house, and everyone really enjoyed the film and the intention of community behind the event.

The Hulu rep enjoyed the space and vibe as well!

Page 1    Words: 88

- 30/35 confirmed guests in attendance
- 2 last minute cancellations
- Timely Set-up and Breakdown
- Hulu rep enjoyed the space & intention of event
- Beverage sponsors happy with turnout
- Caterer shared to social media
- No AV hiccups

Social

Via Twitter is where we had the most activity.

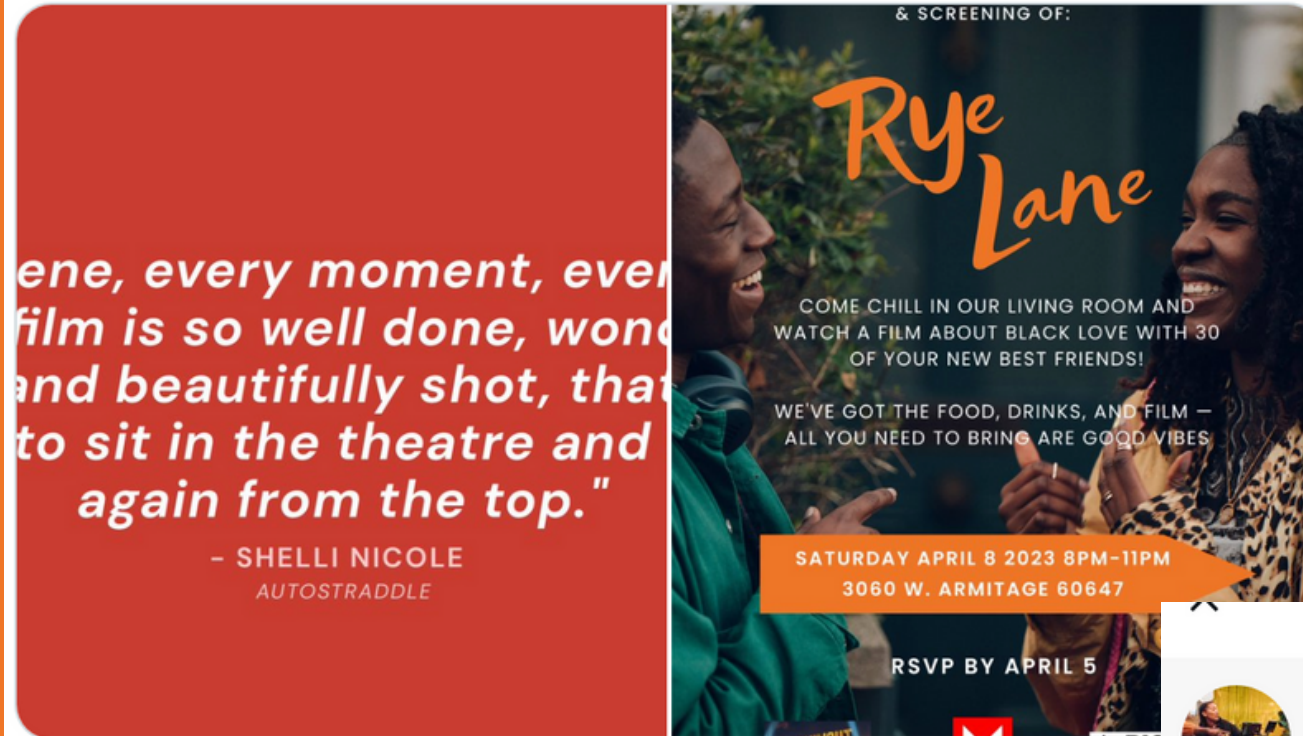

Both writers of the film commented on the event, as did the director. The director also liked the stories shared on Instagram

Both stars of the film liked the tweets & also the stories on Instagram

We're calling it now, RYE LANE is the rom-com of the year! ❤️ We can't get enough of Dom, Yas, and their South London-set love story. And our #CherryPickers couldn't agree more. @rendy_jones @hishelli

"Rye Lane is the movie I've been desperately awaiting. Raine Allen-Miller refreshingly made an earnest Black romantic comedy with cartoonish visual surrealist humor and colorful imagery. She lets its Black characters exist in their community without referring to race or Black trauma tropes. ... 2023 has merely begun, and Rye Lane is already one of my new all-time favorites."

"Every scene, every moment, every minute of this film is so well done, wonderfully written, and beautifully shot, that I almost begged to sit in the theatre and watch it again from the top."
